HELLO AGAIN

VOL. 37 No. 1

JAN-FEB 2006

A PERSONAL NOTE: I hope you all had a happy holiday season. Many thanks for the holiday cards you sent. If anyone wants information in HA, please email me the exact wording if you can. I can then paste it right in the newsletter. Of course I will accept information in regular mail from everyone else. As of now, Karen and I will be moving to Florida around June. I will keep you updated.

THIRD REVISED ULTIMATE HISTORY: Just a reminder that this book was originally written in 1992 and is the first and original book listing Network radio programming and the shows that are in circulation.

The 2005 "3rd Revised Ultimate History" is $52 including P&H. If you bought any of my earlier editions, the cost is $42 including P&H. Please send new information when you can for the first supplement. I will need the information by October 1, 2006.

CONVENTION 2006: This is our 31st convention. Dates are Oct 19 - 22, 2006 at the Holiday Inn, Newark, NJ. Our web site will keep you up to date. Note new web site: http://www.fotr.net

The Planning Meeting for the next convention is Sunday, March 19, at the Holiday Inn at 11 am. If you have any ideas, please send them to me before then. Also, let me know if you haven't attended before and would like to.

CONVENTION 2005: 2005 Convention booklets are available for $2.00 including P&H. There are many guests bios and pictures. A special 30th anniversary booklet was also printed with articles and pictures. Cost of this is also $2.00 including P&H.

All of the sessions were video recorded by Satellite Media Production. You may order them as a complete set or by individual sessions. Please contact Fred Berney at Satellite Media Production, P.O. Box 638, Walkersville, MD 21793-0638. Phone 800-747-0856. Email: fsberney@verizon.net.

Also Ellen and Fred Berney prepared 2 DVD's of the past 30 conventions. Cost is $20 plus $5.00 P&H. Send to Satellite Media Productions.

PUBLICATIONS RECEIVED: A complete list of publications mentioned with addresses, contact people, etc. is one of the introductory pages in my current Ultimate History. It is also part of a small package mailed with your first Hello Again. If you don't have one, email me for it and I will email it to you. ### A Resource Guide to the Golden Age of Radio

Special Collections, Bibliography, and the Internet

By Susan and David S. Siegel

Have you exhausted all the usual sources for locating scripts, recordings and other hard-to-find information about popular and lesser known performers and local or network programs?

Then it's time you turned to the first-ever comprehensive guide to 3,800 primary and secondary print and audio resources about radio's Golden Age.

- 2,300 Special Collections located in academic and public libraries, historical societies, museums, corporate archives and private collections in the United States containing the personal and business papers of performers, writers, directors and others, scripts and recordings of programs and special broadcasts, photographs and other memorabilia
- 1,400 Bibliographic citations, organized into 54 subject headings, from Advertising to World War II.
- 100+ non commercial, research oriented Internet sites with leads to still more resources.
- An Index that integrates all 3,800 listings and which can be searched by person, program and subject or program genre.

Hardcover, 8.5 x 11 • 215 pages • $48.00 ISBN: 1-891379-04-6

Comments from people who have attended our convention.

The best thing about the Cincinnati Old Time Radio and Nostalgia Convention--and why it succeeds--is that it's everything the big conventions are not. There's not as many panels, workshops, and re-creations as in, say, Newark, but this gives the conventioneer ample time to socialise with OTR friends.

You'll find dozens of OTR celebs at FOTR, REPS, and SPERDVAC, but only a handful at Cincinnati. Bob B. ususally brings back fan favourites such as Hal Stone, Bob hastings, and Rosemary Rice. Not having lots of celebs brings about the best part of this convention: re-creation director Don Ramlow holds an open casting call for all us non-celebs to fill out secondary parts in the OTR programmes to be presented, giving us fans a chance to act alongside some OTR greats.

One thing to recommend is that whatever hotel Bob employs is not as isolated as the Holiday Inn in Newark, which is located on an off-highway service road amidst a ganglia of jug-handles, cloverleaves, and overpasses. The Cincy venue is actually walkable to off-premises places to eat. Also, there is only one banquet during the convention--on Saturday night. Prices to attend during the day and for the one banquet are quite reasonable. Pending any spikes in operation costs, one can attend both days' daytime events and the banquet for under $50.00.

So, if you've never been, I highly recommend it. Start saving your airfare now....this might be your last opportunity for a great deal of friendly Midwestern OTR fun. Derek Taque

I had a great time at Cincinnati this year. Highlights include:

- 1) I got cast in a recreation this year! I was the announcer during the production of Our Miss Brooks. What a thrill to work with the professionals and the very talented non-professionals. I felt a little out of my league up there, but everyone was very nice and very helpful. They even tolerated my singing, which should qualify them for sainthood. (that song is still in my head dream girl, dream girl...)
- 2) Cleaning up during the raffle. I hit on 11 out of 30 raffle tickets almost 37%. It was a little embarrassing being so lucky, but I did win some great prizes. Chris Holm

I mused over the experiences there once it ended and came to a conclusion perhaps some others share: that the strength of this event is not in its programming per se, but instead in that very matter of fellowship, the opportunities to rub elbows with people of like persuasion from far and near who share a love for OTR. They feed off each other, and make for a pleasant reverie. I'm thankful Bob Burchett and Robert Newman continue to collect us and give us a venue where we can share the things that are important to us. The minor inconveniences really don't count; I think a good time is still had by all. Jim Cox

WHILE NEWARK IS FLASHIER AND HAS MORE OTR STARS, CINCINNATI HAS MADE UP FOR IT WITH THE WARM PERSONAL MIDWESTERN WAY THAT THE GUESTS ARE WELCOMED. BOB BURCHETT AND HIS SIDEKICKS ROBERT NEWMAN AND DON RAMLOW WENT OUT OF THEIR WAY TO THANK US FOR COMING. I'D LIKE TO THANK THEM FOR HAVING A CONVENTION THAT I WAS ABLE TO ATTEND. FRANK BONCORE
